Dear Mr Coady,

Thank you for your enquiry. As per to the World Sailing Qualification System for Tokyo 2020 (which is available online here and the annexure here), the 2020 49er and 49erFX World Championships are Olympic qualification events for Oceania.

The gender requirements for Olympic events are set out in World Sailing Regulation 21.3.4 (available online here). It provides for two separate events for the skiff – one for men (in the 49er) and another for women (in the 49erFX). Consequence a mixed team cannot qualify for or compete in either event, and a woman cannot qualify for or compete in a men's event (and vice versa).

For each Olympic event World Sailing notifies the IOC of its proposed events and equipment. The slate for 2020 as set out in the Regulations has been approved by the IOC (<https://www.olympic.org/world-sailing>), including as to the gender specifications and equipment for each event.

Kind regards,

Kendall
